

8. What question were the people (priests) asking in vs. 13? _____
 _____ They said it was _____ _____ to serve God. And didn't think was any _____ in keeping His ordinance. What were they saying of the "proud" and the "wicked"? _____
9. Who are spoken of as having fellowship together in vs 16? _____
 _____ Who heard them? _____
 Who was written in the "book of remembrance"? _____
 _____ What term in vs 17 shows their
preciousness to the Lord? _____
10. What kind of people would there be discernment between? 1) _____
 _____ 2) _____

Malachi - Chapter 4

1. Who would one day be like stubble? 1) _____ and
 2) _____
2. Who would "grow fat like stall-fed calves"? _____

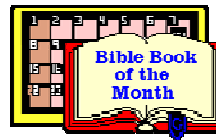

3. What would the wicked be under the souls of the righteous? _____

4. What were the people (the priests) to remember? _____

5. Whom did God say he would send? _____ When would He send him? _____
6. What would he "turn" _____

 (What could this mean? _____
 _____)

- Windell Gann - printed: April 26, 2007

Malachi

Malachi - Chapter 3 & 4

Malachi - Chapter 3

1. What was the task of the "messenger" whom God would send? _____
 _____ What did he say in vs. 1
 about the Lord whom they sought? _____
2. Of whom could the "messenger of the covenant" be referring to? _____
 _____ (Cf. Heb. 9:15, where he is called the _____ _____ of the new covenant.) What are the two metaphors in vs 2 used to describe his work when he comes? 1) _____
 2) _____
3. Verse 4 indicated to us that righteous worship is _____ in the sight of God. God would be a swift witness against: 1) _____ _____ 2) _____ 3) _____ 4) _____
 Because: _____
4. What does vs 6 say the Lord does not do? _____ From what had the people (or priests) gone away? _____
 On what basis would God return to them (to bless and forgive). _____

5. Of what were the people accused in vs. 8? _____
 How had they done this? _____ What was the result of their action (v.9) _____
6. If the people obeyed the Lord what did he say he would do (v.10) _____
 _____ What or who do you think the "devourer"
 of vs. 11 to be? _____
7. From verse 12 what do you think about a nation that will follow and obey the Lord? _____

8. What question were the people (priests) asking in vs. 13? _____
_____ They said it was _____
_____ to serve God. And didn't think was any _____ in keeping His ordinance. What were they saying of the "proud" and the "wicked"? _____

9. Who are spoken of as having fellowship together in vs 16? _____
_____ Who heard them? _____
Who was written in the "book of remembrance"? _____
_____ What term in vs 17 shows their
preciousness to the Lord? _____

10. What kind of people would there be discernment between? 1) _____
_____ 2) _____

Malachi - Chapter 4

1. Who would one day be like stubble? 1) _____ and
2) _____

2. Who would "grow fat like stall-fed calves?" _____

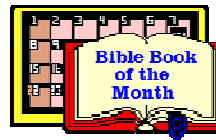

3. What would the wicked be under the souls of the righteous? _____

4. What were the people (the priests) to remember? _____

5. Whom did God say he would send? _____ When
would He send him? _____

6. What would he "turn" _____

(What could this mean? _____
_____)

Malachi

Malachi - Chapter 3 & 4

Malachi - Chapter 3

1. What was the task of the "messenger" whom God would send? _____
_____ What did he say in vs. 1
about the Lord whom they sought? _____

2. Of whom could the "messenger of the covenant" be referring to? _____
_____ (Cf. Heb. 9:15, where he is called the _____ _____ of the new covenant.) What are the two metaphors in vs 2 used to describe his work when he comes? 1) _____
2) _____

3. Verse 4 indicated to us that righteous worship is _____ in the sight of God. God would be a swift witness against: 1) _____ _____ 2) _____ 3) _____ 4) _____
Because: _____

4. What does vs 6 say the Lord does not do? _____ From what had the people (or priests) gone away? _____
On what basis would God return to them (to bless and forgive). _____

5. Of what were the people accused in vs. 8? _____
How had they done this? _____ What was the result of their action (v.9) _____

6. If the people obeyed the Lord what did he say he would do (v.10) _____
_____ What or who do you think the "devourer"
of vs. 11 to be? _____

7. From verse 12 what do you think about a nation that will follow and obey the Lord? _____
