

Discussion Questions

- 1. When people leave our gatherings, how should they feel? How do they feel?
- 2. What is our responsibility to fellow children of God?
- 3. Are we so blessed that we take it for granted?
- 4. If you really loved people as those created in the image of God (just like you), how would that change your actions? Your words? Your thoughts?
- 5. "Let mercy triumph over judgment..." is great advice for today's world. What are some examples of this concept that would make our world a better place to be?