I want to begin meeting with those of you that would like to get together to read the Bible. We had set times to be scheduled on some Saturday mornings, as well as Sunday afternoons. I am interested to hear from you about resuming this time of study together. I would be willing to think about a late evening time, possibly from 5-6 PM, or 6-7 PM, if someone thought that would be a time when they could make it?

We need the word of God. You need the word of God more than you are getting it, no matter how much you are feeding on it. God's word is our standard, our refuge, our strength, our wisdom, and our encouragement. The moral of the account from Hosea today is to learn that people go away from God when they do not listen to his word, and seek what pleases Him.

Text me today if you would be interested in meeting for Bible reading times. Tell me what day, and time, would work best for you, and I will try to collaborate the interest into a time that works for as many as possible. Likely, we will also want to resume several of these times a month.

May God bless us as we seek God's word.

Alex

Sack the Pulpit NEXT Sunday

Red "Sack the Pulpit" bags are located in the main foyer. Grocery list are inside each bag. Please fill with items on the list and return by November 15th. We will have a "drive thru grocery pick up" on Saturday, November 21st, for those in need. Along with the groceries, the families who need help with Christmas will receive a form to fill out and return it that day. The form will provide us with their children's ages and sizes. The forms will then be available to the congregation on Sunday, November 22nd so that we can adopt the families and help them with their needs for Christmas. Those who adopt a family will be delivering the gifts to their respective family in need, therefore you will need to make contact to work out the details on the best way to deliver the items. For those that want to donate money, please give that to the elders and that money will be used to purchase items for these families. If you have questions please see one of the elders.
