There is much attention to the idea of gratitude this week. It is a yearly reminder to us that we have so many blessings. Look around our good land, and you will quickly see that we have some of the best water, food and shelter. Truly we are a rich nation.

Gratitude comes from knowing what these blessings are, and feeling a direct connection to how those blessings improve your life. Gratitude might be expressing those wonderful blessings around a table full of family, before you eat the meal together. Gratitude might show itself in the service of sharing with others. The blessings as have come from a gracious God, who gives and gives and gives, to a group of people who do not deserve his goodness.

This week, practice gratitude. It should come naturally, but if it doesn't then you can still train yourself in gratitude by evaluating all that God has given you. That will make you grateful.

Blessings,
Alex

Happy Friendsgiving Tomorrow Night

We need you to come by between 5:30 and 7:30 tomorrow night and pick up meals for your family and take one to someone else. We have ordered chicken fingers to go with the green beans, mac and cheese, mashed potatoes, rolls, and cookies so it will be a meal that almost everyone will enjoy. Please help us out by participating in this good outreach event. If you are not sure of someone you could deliver to, please email or text me and I will put you in contact with someone. (To our families who have been making connections and caring for our widows/widowers, please contact them to let them know you are bringing them a meal.)

Wednesday Night Devotional

All classes will meet in the auditorium Wednesday night.

Grocery Giveaway and Angel Tree

Forms are available of the families that came yesterday so we can help them with their needs for Christmas. Those who adopt a family will be delivering the gifts to their respective family, therefore you will need to make contact to work out the details on the best way to deliver the items. For those that want to donate money, please give that to the elders and that money will be used to purchase items for these families. Questions? Please see one of the elders.

THANK YOU to everyone that brought groceries and that were at the building yesterday to greet those that came.

Lads to Leaders

A sign-up sheet is in the main foyer for those that are staying overnight at the convention. Please sign up as soon as possible so reservations can be made.

Marriage and Family Seminar

The seminar taught by Joe Wells has been placed on YouTube as well as Facebook. You are encouraged to watch these. They are great lessons to be focused on when it comes to marriage and the family.
