This has been a great study. I am praying that you will be firmly embedded with the truth of the word of God, which can save your souls (James 1.21). I want souls, at Rogersville, to be saved in the day of the visitation of our Lord Jesus. I want more than just “us” to be saved.

Paul wanted this same thing for the people at Corinth, and even shared that teaching with them, when he said, “I am jealous for you with a godly jealousy. I promised you to one husband, to Christ, so that I might present you to Him as a pure virgin” (2 Cor 11.3ff). This agrees with what James says.

Paul and James wanted people to hear the word, and follow it. When you hear the word today, make up your mind to obey it. If anyone tries to remove you from that humble place, then let them be under God’s curse! If anyone tries to remove someone here from the obedience of the faith, then pray for God to help you rescue them (James 5.19-20).

Alex
