This morning we are looking further into the idea of our reaction to the concept of judgment. We are studying from Matthew 7:12-29 where Jesus closes His Sermon on the Mount with a warning to those who consistently claim to be followers but their lives do not reflect that. The warning is dire for those who find themselves falsifying their discipleship and should stand as a testimony to those of us who wear the name of "Christian".

The hope this morning is that in our honest look into the mirror, we will be willing to acknowledge the areas of our lives that need work and do what it takes to rectify those issues. It is vital that the child of God live in such a way that their joyous expectation will be realized in that final day. However, it is absolutely possible (and sadly, probable) that there are those today who claim to be "Christians", but will fall into the category that Jesus spoke of in Matthew 7:21, "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven..."

May we be a people who sincerely seek the will of God and who obey the Word of God in everything that we do.

-- Scott
