13 Who is wise and understanding among you? By his good conduct let him show his works in the meekness of wisdom. 14 But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not boast and be false to the truth. 15 This is not the wisdom that comes down from above, but is earthly, unspiritual, demonic. 16 For where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there will be disorder and every vile practice. -- {James 3:13-16}

Am I selfish? The immediate answer in our mind is "No!" but our actions can (at times) scream "YES!" There are a lot of articles being written and shared concerning the concept of "self-care" and while it is certainly important, it has also been used as an excuse for selfishness. Today needs to be a "self-care" day for all of us. In the world we live in, it is far too easy to fall into the trap of selfishness and feeding my own personal wants or needs over the things God has called me to do and be. As we study this morning, it will be very important that you and I answer these questions with full honesty and transparency. If not, then the trap only gets tighter.
