Today, two lessons will be studied about people Jesus mentions, by name, in scripture. If Jesus takes the time to call these people by name, then something is special about them both. Let's explore the word of God today, and find out who these people are, and what we can learn by Jesus bringing attention to them.

One person is a bad example, and one is a good example.

If Jesus called you by name this morning, would He be doing so in order to praise your example of faithfulness to the rest of this spiritual body? Would Jesus commend your faith? And elaborate on how you surrendered all to Him? Or would Jesus call your name to use you as a negative example? Would He remind the church to "Remember (Your name)" so that you do not do what she/he did?"

These are lessons we all need to learn, but more importantly, we need to be able to pass these along in a casual conversation with our neighbors and friends.

Alex
