Seven Principles

Below are seven principles to consider in our walk with God.

First, consider the effect of one principle, such as consistently taking responsibility for our own lives. How would one's life experience improve?

Now, understanding how powerful one principle might be, imagine the power of seven principles stacked together. The results of growing these principles into a common force through God's work can make us unshakable, immovable, and steadfast for God.

The Responsible Principle – The buck stops here.

The Guided Principle – I will seek wisdom.

The Active Principle – I am a person of action.

The Certain Principle – I have a decided heart.

The Joyful Principle – Today I will choose to be happy.

The Compassionate Principle – I will greet today with a forgiving spirit.

The Persistent Principle – I will persist without exception.
