There is a word used in modern-day circles that is intended to express to its reader the desire for every person involved to be excited about what is going to happen. The word is "hype" and it is (probably) overused in many areas. It is used to bring attention to new car models, new homes being built, new clothing lines, NBA basketball games, college football recruits, and even new sandwiches at restaurants. Sadly, the word "hype" has become like numerous other words in our English language: (i.e. "awesome", "amazing", "greatest", or even "best"). Overused, misunderstood, and inaccurate when it comes to things that actually fit those words.

Over the course of the next few weeks, we are going to hype the hero that is Jesus. If you are able to read the gospels, connect the prophecies of old to the life of Jesus, and understand His death, burial, and resurrection and not be moved emotionally, mentally, physically, and spiritually, then you have become numb to the hero that is Jesus. There are so many characteristics that make Him a hero, and we will not be able to sufficiently cover them all, and I hope that by the end of this study you are daily giving Jesus the hype He deserves.

Sympathy

We express our sympathy to the family of Wayne Myers of Michigan, brother to David Myers. He passed away last week.

Thoughts of Gratitude

We are so thankful for our church family. We want to thank everyone for all your prayers the past few months for Todd and our family. Without them we would not have been able to get through this. A special thanks for the ladies who prepared dinner for us after the funeral. All the love and support we received will never be forgotten. -In Christian Love, Tammy, Taylor and Walker

I and my family would like to thank you. Words cannot express the appreciation we have for the Elders and all of our church family. All of the food, cards, calls, visits, and especially the prayers encourage us daily and show true Christian love. Then last "The Ramp" is above and beyond what we really expected. We appreciate all the time, effort, and planning that went into building the ramp for us. We serve a mighty God together with the family that meets here at Rogersville Church of Christ. We wish God's blessing on all of you. -Glen & Vauda Wilson
