The fact that Jesus is a hero is seen in the way that He treats people (His friendship) and in the way He embodies grace. In addition to these beautiful characteristics, Jesus is a hero because He gives us a purpose in life.

For thousands of years, people have sought to answer the questions -- "What is the purpose of life?" and "What is the secret of life?" Inevitably, the answer that is presented by the secular world involves some type of vague, semi-philosophical vocabulary soup that does not actually make a definitive statement.

For instance:

"The mystery of human existence lies not in just staying alive, but in finding something to live for." -- Fyodor Dostoyevsky

"The purpose of life is a life of purpose." -- Robert Byrne

"There is no greater gift you can give or receive than to honor your calling. It's why you were born. And how you become most truly alive." -- Oprah Winfrey

Now I am certain that these people believed themselves to have unlocked the long stuck door of purpose with these quotes, but sadly, I must inform them that they have actually maneuvered around the actual purpose or point in life.

The purpose we all so desperately seek? It is found in Jesus. No one else. Nowhere else. In nothing else.

We will find our purpose, our point, and our secret of life when we follow Jesus.
