Good morning and welcome to our time of worship and Bible study here at the Rogersville church of Christ. I pray that you will feel welcomed and encouraged by the efforts of those participating today and that you will feel led to improve or perhaps begin your relationship with God through the teaching of His Word today.

There are many things to be thankful for and we are all aware of what it means to be grateful or thankful for something. I wanted to take this space this week and try to express my thanks for what God has blessed and continues to bless me with.

I am thankful for the Word of God and how it can change the lives of mankind.

I am thankful for the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ for in it we can find eternal life.

I am thankful for my physical family and for their unwavering support of me in this earthly life.

I am thankful for my church family. While we come from different backgrounds and are involved in different avenues, I have always felt/thought that you were there for me and my family. For that I am forever grateful.

I am thankful for the freedom I enjoy to worship, to study, to think, and to pray to my God.

I am thankful for so many other things that I do not have the room to type, but above them all I am thankful for an Almighty God who, in His infinite wisdom, grace, and mercy, saw fit to grant me another period of time in which I can serve Him.

May we all be more understanding, thankful, grateful, and kind. May God bless you all as you consider your gratefulness this week. -SW
