Tonight we will have a worship service followed by an opportunity to bless the teachers that work at Lauderdale County. We plan to make as many blessing bags as possible with the materials we have collected over the past two months. We hope and pray that you will come tonight for worship and then stay afterwards for a congregation-wide service project.

The plan (currently) is for there to be three different operating lines to be working at the same time. One group will be in the classroom wing, one in the main foyer, and one in the office wing. We ask that you take a bag, place a few items in it and then place the finished bag in Scott's office in the designated bins. Our teenagers will then handle the delivery of the blessing bags to the school on Monday. Thank you in advance to those who will be helping us put these together and thank you to those who gave funds or materials to make these bags possible.

I ask that you pray for our students, teachers, administrators, and parents as we move into the final quarter of the school year. Unfortunately, many of our students are under tremendous stress and pressure while many of our teachers and administrators have unattainable expectations placed on them by those who have never done the job. Finally, pray for the parents of the students as they seek to influence their children for good. We pray that all may come to know the power of Jesus Christ and lean on the word of God in these times.
