The response I personally received from our recent discussion about mental health and the ways we (as the church) have failed in listening, has been nothing short of inspirational. I am so grateful to those who took the time to speak up and discuss their personal struggles, triumphs, and work they are currently doing to help themselves grow. I am so grateful to those who took the time to send an email or text of support. In every way, I hope that what we have discussed previously and what we will discuss today will be an aid in the growth process for someone.

There are times in our lives where fear, change, destruction, or loss can affect how we are able to operate in the world. There are times where a minor stressor becomes a major issue and we are not sure how to handle it. There are even times when something catastrophic happens and we feel completely unprepared for what the future may hold. It is my hope that this morning we can use the great prophets of old to somewhat fashion a ladder for us to better grasp how to move beyond these stumbling blocks or these seemingly insurmountable walls.

Praise God for the opportunity we have been given today.

Annex

The annex is still in need of some items to help our meals run smoothly. We need: Serving spoons of all sizes, serving forks, pie servers, potholders, and water pitchers. Rachael has the Amazon list still active if you would like to look at these selections.
