THIS MORNING: We are looking at what it means to be a leader. There should not be a question as to whether or not we all know what a leader looks like, but perhaps we are lacking in our knowledge of what the qualities of a leader are. These qualities are present in numerous men in this congregation (as well as congregations all over the nation and world), but there is an epidemic breaking out that sees congregations losing elderships, deacons, and even ministers without an obvious plan to replace them. What can we do? It appears we have two options:

- 1) Sit on our hands and hope for a solution.
- 2) Be willing to learn, step up, and serve.

Obviously, we prefer the second option because within it we see churches grow, thrive, and develop a strong impact in their community. Can we depend on ourselves? Most assuredly because there are so many families represented here that love the Lord and want to help others come to know Him. The need is growing and let us strive to be proactive rather than sitting back and hoping for a solution.

To our ladies: Please don't turn off this message as though you have no part. Your willingness to influence our men, our young men, and the children of this congregation is vital. Thank you to all those who are actively pursuing a strong influence through teaching class, serving other members, and participating in things like Circle of Sisters.

Leaders are not always born, many are created. Therefore, let it be said about us that we are striving to create more leaders in the body of Christ.

TONIGHT: Be sure to come back and participate in our 4th Sunday singing tonight at 5pm.
- Scott Wright
