"For God, who said, 'Let light shine out of darkness,' has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have this treasure in jars of clay, to show that the surpassing power belongs to God and not to us." (2 Corinthians 4:6-7)

THIS MORNING: The darkness is not my friend. I do not like being jump-scared or left in the dark. Therefore, it has always been an imperative for me to have a way to get a light on when the power goes out or I am entering a dark place. Humans are naturally uncomfortable in darkness as it is something we say we have to "adjust" to when we are in it. However, over time, if left in darkness, a person will eventually adjust to it and even be able to operate in darkness without any fear, uncertainty, or discomfort. This concept is also true when it comes to the darkness of sin in one's life.

When it comes to sin, we are naturally uncomfortable in it and our conscience seemingly will not leave us alone about it. However, over time, if we continue to live in darkness and continue to pursue those things, we will adjust to it and it will begin to feel more like home. Paul explains in 2 Corinthians 4 that the glorious light of the gospel will lead us out of darkness and help us arrive in eternal glory with God the Father.

TONIGHT: We hope you will come back tonight and join us for a period of singing at 5pm!
