Jesus gives a life of genuine peace and happiness.

Jesus promised, "Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest" (Matthew 11:28). In Jesus there truly is rest for the weary. Take, for instance, the example of a man from Ethiopia that rejoiced after he was baptized into the Christ (Acts 8:36-39).

One who serves the Savior has the satisfaction of knowing that he is doing the Lord's will, that he is showing reverence for his Creator, and that he is keeping His commands, which is the whole of man (Ecclesiastes 12:13).

With peace of mind and joy comes the confidence that the Lord will be with us and bless us. If we remain faithful to Him, then His promises hold true: "I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee" (Hebrews 13:5), and as we walk in the light, "we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin" (I John 1:7).

"Come and see" (John 1:39).
