*Out of the depths I cry to you, O LORD!
 O Lord, hear my voice! Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my pleas for mercy!
 If you, O LORD, should mark iniquities, O
 Lord, who could stand?
 But with you there is forgiveness, that you may be feared.
 I wait for the LORD, my soul waits, and in his word I hope;
 my soul waits for the Lord more than watchmen for the morning, more than watchmen for the morning.
 O Israel, hope in the LORD! For with the LORD there is steadfast love, and with him is plentiful redemption. And he will redeem Israel from all his iniquities.
 (Psalm 130)*

The idea of forgiveness should be something we have no hope of because we are constantly making decisions that put us in a state of needing forgiveness and nothing else in our lives are dealt with the way God deals with us. If we continuously made mistakes at work that knocked the entire company off its path, we would be fired quickly. Even in our personal relationships, we can find ourselves writing people off after a couple of misspeaks or unfortunate actions. Therefore, we should not live in hope that the Creator of the universe would operate differently. However, He takes our sins that we repent of and remembers them no more, removes them from us as far as the east is from the west and does not hold them against our record anymore.

Yes, grace is amazing... The love of God is greater than anything we can name... And forgiveness is available to everyone who will obey their loving, gracious Creator.
