As hard as it is to believe, we have arrived at another holiday season. It is during this season that many people will give thanks for the things they have, the people in their lives and the experiences they get to be a part of. If you will... indulge me for one front page bulletin to tell you what I am grateful for this particular year:

-- First and foremost, I am thankful for Jesus Christ because without His life, death, burial and resurrection, I could not have hope of eternal life. -- I am thankful for my wife and the relationship we have continued to grow into over the past 22 (almost 23) years.

-- I am thankful for my daughter who is as fierce as she is beautiful and continues to amaze me with her incredible personality and compassion for others.

-- I am thankful for my son who represents everything I wish I would have been at his age. He is kind, funny, thoughtful, spiritually-minded and willing to put himself in hard places to do the right things.

-- I am thankful for this congregation and what it has meant to our family for the past 7 (almost 8) years. You all have seen us through some difficult times, some great successes and have encouraged us in ways that you may never be aware of.

-- I am thankful for our elders and their willingness to lead when much of the world claims it is too hard to lead.

-- I am thankful for our deacons and their dedication to the work of the church.

-- I am thankful, most of all, for a God who makes every one of these blessings possible and continues to give me far more than I ever could dream, hope or ask for.

I pray you will have a wonderful holiday season and will be reminded of the goodness of God in every way. --SW
