- Again, I am sharing a well-written piece on the gospel that was shared by Jason Bybee from Mayfair church of Christ. I pray these thoughts are encouraging, as well as challenging to grow in your faith. -- SW

What is the Gospel? (Part 2)

For too long, the Gospel has been reduced to a series of propositional doctrinal statements one must intellectually assent to in order to experience personal forgiveness of sin and receive the promise of going to some sort of ethereal, non-material, spiritual "heaven" after death. While it is impossible to ignore the implications of the Gospel on a personal level and its attendant benefits, this treatise is an attempt to recover a more holistic understanding of the Gospel in light of its corporate elements that have implications not only for eternity but also for the present reality of Christian existence.

Gospel Defined: The Gospel is the story of God's activity in salvation history to reconcile creation to God as revealed in Scripture. From creation to the call of Abraham, from exodus to exile, from Christ to church to consummation, God has been at work in the course of human history to bring about salvation. Salvation occurs when the Gospel is both encountered and embodied in the life of the believing community.

Exile: Sin. Exile is our communal failure story. Scripture affirms that humanity willfully fails to image God in the created order. This failure, known as sin, constitutes the disruption of community and a violation of God's covenantal desire for creation. Rather than choosing a relationship with God, humanity chooses "not God". This failure to image God corrupts the integrity of creation and the consequence of this corruption is a radical reorientation of the created order. Adam and Eve are cast out of the Garden of Eden into a world of their own creation, a world of toil, pain, suffering, and death. After shunning covenant with God, the human experience is characterized by exile and estrangement from the intention of the Creator God.

-- Jason Bybee, Lead Minister Mayfair church of Christ
