ROGERSVILLE CHURCH OF CHRIST JANUARY 19, 2025

If a person came to you and asked you to believe the next thing they said, would you? I suppose that many of us would answer "It depends".

What would it depend on? Your knowledge of who the person is perhaps or maybe your past experience with them? Whether or not you chose to believe the next thing they said would not be determined by them asking you to do so, rather it would depend on your connection to them.

Jesus states in John 8:32 that those who have heard Him, obey Him and abide in His word will know the truth and "the truth will set you free." What about you?

Has Jesus earned the right to make this type of declaration? What has He ever done that would give Him the right to tell me, you or anyone else that they need to be set free?

The truth of the matter is simply this, Jesus Christ is the only being with authority to tell us what to do because He has purchased us with His blood on the cross of Calvary and is our intercessor before the One true and living God. If Jesus states something as factual it must be acknowledged and obeyed. The people He spoke with on this day (John 8), chose to focus on the wrong thing and missed the point Jesus was trying to teach them... what about us?

Are we focused on the point Jesus was making or are we pondering the distractions of life?

May God help us as we strive to keep our eyes on Him.

-Scott Wright
