Church of Christ

July 05, 2026

Encourage Our Teachers

Teaching others Bible Truths is the greatest job in the world. It carries with it a heavy responsibility (James 3:1) and demands a great amount of work. This vital work of the church, when done correctly, is a true labor of love. Good teachers spend a great amount of time and energy in preparation of teaching and being careful to only teach the true Word of God (2 Timothy 2:15). They involve themselves physically, mentally, emotionally, and spiritually in their teaching in order to be Christ-like, to bring souls to Him and glory to God. Bible Class teachers are instructing those they teach with the doctrine of Christ. They help change lives and they strengthen the Church.

Too often, they labor tirelessly without being shown the proper appreciation for them and their work. Discouragement is sometimes a foe teachers will face. As members of the congregation, Bible Class teachers deserve our sincere gratitude and our frequently expressed appreciation for the work that they do. I urge you to pray for Bible teachers and encourage Bible teachers often. May God bless faithful men and women who are gladly using their abilities in teaching Bible Classes.

-Joe Christopher

Sick List

Alice Ezell is not doing well.

Tripp Covington, infant grandson of Wendell & Beverly Watson, was born with a hole in his ventricle that needs to close. If it does not close on its own, he will have open heart surgery at a later date.

Dearl Poss, uncle to Delana Whitman, was septic and had surgery Monday for an infection in collarbone.

Annie Murphy, mother of Frances Murphy, had an amputation and is in rehab.

Sympathy

We express our sympathy to the family of Eric White, son of Terry & Jan White and brother to Allen. His funeral was last week.

Thank You

Dear Rogersville CoC, we are very grateful for all that you have done for us through the years as individuals and now as a couple. We both owe so much to so many people at this congregation. Thank you to all those who helped make the shower possible with their efforts. We love you all and are blessed to have been raised in part by so many of you. -Tanner & Lily

Reminder

We will not have a fellowship meal today. Our afternoon service will begin at 12:30.
