Church of Christ

October 04, 2026

"And it is my prayer that your love may abound more and more, with knowledge and all discernment, so that you may approve what is excellent, and so be pure and blameless for the day of Christ," --
Philippians 1:9-10

The aim of the congregation here should be united -- We seek to grow in our knowledge and discernment so that we can then recognize what is excellent and dismiss those things that are not of Christ. The issues within numerous so-called congregations are that individuals bring their own selfishness and pettiness to the corporate worship services and act as though the service is for their own enjoyment. When we are united in our aim to please God, worship God, study God's Word, and continually examine ourselves so that we stand pure and blameless before God, then the issue of why we do what we do or the petty issues that could cause harm to the Lord's church are swept away and what remains is a unified body ready to serve.

We are so glad that you are here to worship God with us today! We hope and pray you are met with a feeling of spiritual unity and discernment that leads us towards our Heavenly Father through the blood of His Son.
